THE SUMMER SHIRTWAIST.
Oh, peekaboo!
I tell you true,
As every person knows
And must confess,
You're almost dress
And very nearly clothes.
Oh, peekaboo!
The glimpses you
Permit of shoulders white
Would tempt, I fear,
The most austere
And ancient anchorite.
Oh, peekaboo!
Your fees are few,
Your enemies are less:
For goodness knows
You're almost clothes
And very nearly dress.
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Beechwood; Fireworks; Wednesday.

All those interested in the Cincinnati trip will please be on hand tomorrow morning at the Christian Sunday-school.

There is much adverse criticism in Lexington over the granting of a new trial to Aaron McCabe, the Negro who was recently given the death sentence for killing Martin Clark. It is claimed that the failure to hang Negroes for killing white people is largely the cause of many crimes of this character.

Ladies, have you seen our new line of Belt Buckles, Bracelets, Side and Back Combs, Hand Bags, Scarf and Stick Pins, Fobs and Chains, Dress Pins, Hat Pins? These goods are all positively new and stylish. You can see them in our show windows. Call and see them.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Ora Mullikin, locked up on a misdemeanor charge, escaped from Jail at Mt. Olivet a week ago.

Mr. Robert M. Fryer and family will leave next Wednesday for their new home at Fort Thomas.

A lilliputian Wogglebug was in active use yesterday in West Third street rolling the bed preparatory for the concrete.

The Secretary of War has decided adversely upon the car ferry system the C. and O. proposed establishing at Portsmouth.

Wesley W. Smith, aged 80, one of the five surviving Mexican War Veterans in Harrison county, fell Thursday, breaking both arms.

The Rev. F. P. Gates of Mt. Olivet has been selected to preach the introductory sermon at the Bracken Association, which convenes at Mt. Sterling August 1st.

The Rev. A. G. Tippet of the Bible Christian Mission, Cincinnati, will give a moving picture exhibit at the Courthouse this evening for the benefit of his Mission.

The Magnolia Flour Mills have just received a large machine for the collection of all dust around the mill, and also to stop the roaring noise from the fan exhaust.

The Winchester Democrat remarks that the Congressional race in the Eighth District seems to be a Jonah. Dick Miller is dead, William Jennings Price fainted while making his first speech and was compelled to withdraw from the race, and now Judge Hughes is quite ill.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran has fixed September 24th, the opening day of the fall term of Federal Court at Frankfort, for hearing arguments on the motion for a permanent restraining order asked by the leading railroad corporations of the state to prevent the Kentucky Railroad Commission from putting into effect the reduced rates on freight which it recently ordered.

The best Ice Cream Soda and Phosphates are at Ray's Soda Fountain, 5 cents.

Mrs. Etta Griffith, accused of poisoning her child, was held to answer without bail to the Fayette County Grand Jury.

Marshal Lake Teel of Augusta was married this week to Miss Etta Fraysure, one of Bracken's estimable young women.

With many thanks to those who have so long and so generously favored me with their patronage, I will be under additional obligations to those indebted if they will make prompt settlement of bills, which are now ready at my former store, in order that my business may be closed up.

Mrs. L. V. DAVIS.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

State and county taxes for 1906 are in the Sheriff's hands for collection. Under the acts of the last Legislature, the penalty will be added on November 1st. Your attention is called to the new law printed on the tax notices posted throughout the county.

JAMES MACKEY, Sheriff of Mason County.

Mr. George H. Turnipseed has returned from a month's stay at school at Oxford, O.

The best races that have ever been seen in West Virginia will be at the Huntington Driving Park, Huntington, W. Va., August 1st, 21 and 3d.

NOTICE.

King Bros. will sell at public auction one carload of Western Horses in Railroad Stockyards in Maysville Thursday, August 23, at 10 a. m. This consignment consists of yearlings, two-year-olds and grown stock. They are a bunch of nice boned saddling and driving bred horses and are money makers. They may be seen two days before sale by applying to Dickson & Myall.

PROPOSED HOSPITAL

Maysville Soon to Have an Up-to-Date Institution

If current rumor be correct, the public will be glad to learn that a number of our enterprising and benevolent citizens contemplate the organization in the near future of a corporation for the purpose of conducting an up-to-date hospital.

Maysville has long needed an institution like this, as every year a large number of persons from this and adjoining counties are compelled to go to Cincinnati, not for the lack of surgical ability, but simply for hospital facilities.

The full details of the plan, it is hoped, will be disclosed shortly and the public will then have an opportunity to better appreciate the scope and far-reaching results of the enterprise, which certainly merits the enthusiastic support of our entire citizenship.

SINCE the lid has been screwed down in Cincinnati, the job lot Department Stores have marked down 10 cent orangeade to the bargain counter price of 5 cents. It's an ill wind when a fellow can't "blow himself" on his Sunday girl.

THIS is one difference between Louisville and Lexington. Louisville is sending out State Fair literature and asking the provincial papers of the dog fennel districts to publish it free. Lexington is sending out the Bluegrass Fair literature and offering to pay cash in advance for its publication. Result—Lexington's business-like way makes the newspaper boys sit up and take notice; Louisville's postage stamps and stationery find their way to the wastebasket by the p. d. q. route.

AMONG the other good things done by the Kentucky Press Association was the unanimous adoption of these resolutions, offered by Colonel WILLIAM B. HALDEMAN of The Louisville Times—

"Resolved, That in matters requiring legislative action the press of Kentucky has not been overreaching in its requests; has asked but little and has had less granted; therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Kentucky Press Association, That the reasonable requests of the newspapers of Kentucky in the interest of both the press and the citizens of this Commonwealth be presented through the columns of the newspapers who are members of this Association to candidates for Legislative, Congressional or state office, or for the nomination thereto, and ascertain exactly their position in such matters. In this way only can it be known whose opposition we may expect and who may in return expect our opposition."

"OPENED by mistake" will be no excuse hereafter, if you tear open the envelope of a letter intended for another, although it may be found in your own box at the Postoffice. The Postoffice Department has ruled that mail must be looked over before leaving the office, and that any letter put in your box by mistake must be returned before leaving the office under the penalty of $500 for failure to do so. It didn't use to be thus; but since the Postoffices have been filled with Civil Service employes, who are perhaps required to solve the riddle of (Edipus but needn't know the name of the Mayor or where the town clock lives, it isn't necessary for them to be correct or to work very hard. Why not just chuck the whole mail into a big trough and let the devoted patrons sort it out themselves and be done with it?

SOME people are trying very hard nowadays to show that there really was something noble and something of emulation in the life of RUSSELL SAGE. The effort is not apt to be productive of great results. RUSSELL SAGE was a man who had a fairly good time, as a good time appeared to him, in this world. He worked hard to make and stunted himself to save money. To him the collection of dollars was the only business or amusement worth following. As the collector of pictures or coins or stamps pursues his hobby, so SAGE pursued his—except that SAGE's hobby was not his amusement, but his whole life. The Times-Star sizes up the situation most admirably when it says it is not easy to draw inspiration from such an existence as that. Narrowness, selfishness, lack of human sympathy—if anyone believes that with these things and all his money, SAGE was better off than the average American with a dollar in his pocket and a real appreciation of life and its meaning in his heart, we are of the opinion that, as the slang phrase goes, there is another guess coming to him.

Ruggles Campmeeting

Correspondence Public Ledger.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 26th, 1906.

The regular services of the Campmeeting have begun under the most favorable circumstances. Everything that could be done for the improvement of local conditions in order that the meetings might be a success has been done. The ground improvements are very noticeable, especially that of the Tabernacle, which has been raised, re-roofed and a new platform for the choir, which will add much to the attractiveness of the services, the old Tabernacle being so low that it was a continuous handicap to speakers and singers.

The provision for the spiritual help of the campers has also been amply provided for. Dr. H. L. Baker of Berkeley, Cal., who comes as the leader of the singing and to give Bible readings, will fulfill all and more than has been promised for him. Whoever hears him once will not miss another service in which he speaks, and as a leader of song, he has a gift to perfection of getting everybody who can make a noise with their mouths to open them and let the noise come forth.

Dr. Oliver, who so delighted the campers last year, will arrive in a few days and will assume charge of the evangelistic services, which in itself is a sufficient guarantee of their success.

Quite a number of Ministers of the Covington District are here and ready to put their shoulders to the wheel and do their utmost for the success of the meetings.

The following Ministers are now on the grounds—Rev. Dr. H. L. Baker of Berkeley, Cal.; Reverends G. W. and H. W. Bunton of Maysville, John Chesap of Germantown, L. R. Godbey of Tollesboro, M. A. Morris of Wallingford and M. A. Wallingford of Maysville.

As usual, Maysville folks are in the majority, the following families being already here—John Crane and family; John Walsh and family; Harry Walsh and family; G. C. Easton and family; Mrs. O. H. P. Thomas and children; Mrs. B. F. Thomas and children; Mrs. Hattie V. Mathews and daughters; W. P. Bowman and family; Mrs. Joseph F. Martin and children; Mr. and Mrs. John Brodt, Sr.; M. A. Wallingford and family; Harry Richardson and family; Mrs. John T. Smith and family; Mrs. Belle Smith, and Miss Mary Belle Cady; the Misses Bierbower, Boniwell and Rains, who will ably represent the Tourist Club; J. Ed. Garrett and wife; Mrs. J. H. Dodson and daughter, Mrs. C. E. Choate, of Georgia; Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Miss Violet Graham, Mrs. Jane Morris; Mrs. W. P. King; Charles Breeze and family; Mrs. C. B. Pearce.

Rev. M. A. Wallingford of Maysville conducted the first 6 o'clock a. m. prayer-meeting, at which quite a number were present.

On account of the unavoidable absence of Rev. F. W. Harrop, who has general charge of the meetings, Dr. Baker took charge of the opening morning service and delivered a very instructive address on the Lord's Prayer, which, by the way, was the Sunday-school lesson for last Sunday, and the way he brought out the NOTES.

Mr. I. M. Lane came out today and is looking out for the interest of the meeting. His presence on the grounds makes everything go.

The hotel this year is under new management and we are reliably informed that everything is in first class. The crop of yellow-legged chickens has ripened at the opportune time, and C. P. Beckett, an old Maysville boy, is in the dining-room to see that everybody gets his share.

Mrs. Dr. Heflin of Newport is the guest of her mother, Mrs. John Walsh.

Some of our good Maysville ladies who occupy a tent near the Tabernacle have had their first round with a nest of bumble bees, and are rejoicing over a wonderful victory over the little pest, owing to the bravery of one of the younger ladies.

Mrs. J. D. Muse and daughter, Julia, have returned from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Fleming county.

Mrs. M. Gunn of East Second street returned Thursday from a visit with her daughter at Washington Courthouse, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Merz and Junior Merz and Miss Kate Maley will leave Monday for a sojourn at Atlantic City and other Eastern points.

Mr. George D. Young of Louisville, son of Postmaster and Mrs. F. M. Young of Mt. Olivet, has just presented the Teachers' Library of Robertson county with fifty volumes of "World's Best Histories."

Mr. R. O. Chambers of Sardis, owner of the cattle killed and maimed by the C. and O. a day or so since, was here yesterday and defrayed expense of removing them. He thought it had been done by those responsible for the occurrence, as he had turned the animals over to the steamboat, and had paid the freight on them to Cincinnati.

The latest census gives the population of London and the suburbs at 6,581,402.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

River News

The gage marks 9.9 and falling.

The Tacoma is the packet scheduled to pass up tonight.

The rise at Pittsburgh didn't pan out as expected, though it helped navigation considerably.

The Government is compelling the city of Pittsburgh to replace with electric lights the old oil lamps on the bridges.

A late order from the authorities provides that it is not necessary to issue a license to boats measuring under 16 tons gross and used exclusively as pleasure craft.

The M. L. Thornton is lying at the bottom of the river at Ft. Pleasant. In rounding a bend in the river she struck a large rock, and sank soon after. The crew were rescued with skiffs.

The big Sprague has gone to New Orleans to bring up a tow of empties. It is the purpose of the owners to bring the empties up as far as navigation is possible so that they can be towed into Pittsburgh on the first rise.

A relic of former ways of recovering property from the bed of the river was brought to the surface a few days ago by Captain Hickman near Hermann, Mo. It was an old-fashioned diving bell weighing about 5,000 pounds. It is 5 feet high and 4 1/2 feet in diameter. The bell was buried more than fifty years ago, in an attempt to raise a sunken boat.

Mrs. John Sapp and Mrs. Charles Jones were arraigned in Squire Pickrell's Court yesterday and assessed $5.75 each for their Amazonian combat.

At a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee at Louisville yesterday, Judge A. R. Burnam of Richmond was re-elected State Election Commissioner on behalf of the party.

The corrected time card of C. and O. trains will be found in another place, changes effective tomorrow. You'd best paste it in your bonnet, so when you want to take the 8:16 train you'll not get to the station at 8:16.

Messrs. Hubbard and Howard furnished music for a Hop at Flemingsburg last night.

Dr. George H. Harris, after eight years continuous work, only losing two Sundays, leaves Monday with his daughter, Dorothy, for Michigan for a season of rest and recreation.

Except for a few small bequests to relatives the fortune of Russell Sage is left to his widow. There is no charitable bequest in the will. There was nothing in the will to indicate the value of Mr. Sage's estate. Each of Mr. Sage's nephews and nieces is bequeathed $25,000. There is also a bequest of $10,000 to Mr. Sage's sister, Mrs. Chapin, now deceased. The section bequeathing the bulk of the estate to Mrs. Sage reads that she is "to have and to hold the same absolutely and forever."

BOGGS.

No mail was received here Monday on account of high water.

Omar Boggs returned Wednesday from a visit at Maysville and Lewisburg.

G. W. Barkley has installed stock scales on his farm, which will be a great convenience to himself and neighbors.

Mr. James Meadows, aged 82, whose illness we have noted, died Tuesday. Interment Wednesday at East Fork, with services by Rev. Timothy Johnson.

There was a tremendous rain here Monday, and a short distance South and East of this place there was a miniature cloud-burst. Cabin creek was on a terrific rampage, the water being over the pike for the distance of half a mile, and in the Halbert covered bridge, which was never known before. One man East of here lost over one hundred bundles of oats, and J. C. Boyd of this place had an acre of tobacco and a considerable amount of fencing washed away. The creek also did much other damage, and fruit branch, which enters the creek at this place from the South, was higher than it has ever been before.

FEARIS.

Guess the farmer is satisfied about rain. Jesse Henderson, teacher at Clarksburg, was here visiting his home and attending Campmeeting Sunday.

The big day at the Campmeeting turned out a rainy day.

Deputy Sheriff Orcutt was here last week collecting taxes.

Milch cows are still dying with milk fever. James Walden lost one last week.

Rev. Bunton, wife and children, after attending Campmeeting for a week, left for their home in Maysville Friday.

Mrs. Jane Cox, Mrs. Lou Harrison and several more are reported on the sick list. Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Higgins are reported worse.

Mary Lou Kennedy and Alva Hendrickson were married last week on Poplar Flat. Guess they will go West and grow up with the country.

Mrs. Elizabeth Himes, widow of Thomas J., is allowed a pension under the new law. The claim was filed by A. S. Cole, N. P., April 5th, 1906.

Campmeeting is over. The next in order is the National G. A. R. Encampment, the Reunion and Fairs. Croxton Post will be represented at the National Encampment as usual.

Major M. C. Hutchins has obtained an increase of pension for Elijah Combs of this city at the rate of $12 from June 27th, 1906.

The Union Service to be held at Washington Opera-house tomorrow evening at 7:45 will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. W. L. H. Owens, who came Home-Coming Week and has been the guest of his niece, Mrs. Charles T. Huff, of East Second street, returned to his home in Louisville this week. He was so well pleased with his reception and entertainment while here that he is determined to make another visit next year. He will find the latch-string on the outside of the door and a cordial welcome within.

A son of Mr. Dayton Willett, who resides in the Fifth Ward, was badly bitten last night by a vicious country dog at the corner of Second and Poplar streets. The little fellow saw the dog standing on the pavement and playfully caught hold of it, when the beast jumped upon him and before he could be beaten off had inflicted several ugly wounds on the boy's face. He was promptly attended to by a physician.

THE HOME PAPERS

Captain John T. Martin Appreciates His Daily Letters

THE LEDGER takes pleasure in acknowledging receipt of the following—

LOS ANGELES, CAL., July 23, 1906.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Editor Public Ledger, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Tom: Inclosed please find check drawn in your favor for amount of subscription for THE LEDGER for another year, and I honestly make the statement that I consider the investments I made in my two home papers the very best ones I have made, and the ones my family and myself enjoy the most. They are like two big letters from home every day, giving us all the news, and telling us what our friends are doing.

May prosperity be with all of you, is the wish of your old friend, JOHN T. MARTIN.

ATTENTION!
The physicians of this city are requested to meet at the office of Squire Pickrell Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Business of importance to every member of the profession.

Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen.

Henry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I believe everybody in Maysville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Co.'s Drugstore I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and having aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker I thought my trouble was caused by my work, for every time I took a cold it settled in my back, but Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble, and never from that time to this have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and to be honest with you, I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take a substitute.
